

MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct has been prepared to outline the broad principles of legal and ethical business conduct expected of CICA members. It is a condition of CICA membership that all members will comply with the Code by agreeing to these principles.

- ❖ A member will conduct their business in an ethical and legal manner so as to reflect positively on the industry and CICA. In doing so a member will act with integrity and in a responsible and professional manner in the spirit of good faith and fair dealing.
- ❖ A member, if supplying cranes and equipment, will ensure they are in a safe condition, that are maintained in accordance with the Australian Standards and manufacturers recommendations and that are suitable for the required activity.
- ❖ A member will exercise all reasonable care to ensure any machinery is operated in a safe manner in accordance with manufacturer's recommendations, Australian Standards and all local rules and regulations.
- ❖ A member will supply personnel who are trained and qualified and hold all required licences and certifications.
- ❖ Members will promote this Code with all personnel to ensure they act in accordance with the provisions of this code.
- ❖ Any breach of this Code should be reported to the CICA Board, via the CICA Chief Executive Officer. Members will be prepared to co-operate with any investigation of any potential breach of this Code.

Members agree to be bound by this Code of Conduct upon joining CICA and payment of subsequent renewals fees will assume agreement of continued compliance.
