CICA Announces Board

CICA has announced its Board of Directors for 2014 / 15, following its AGM and subsequent Board Meeting in Sydney.

The Crane Industry Council of Australia (CICA) has successfully held its 2014 Annual General Meeting (AGM) at the Allphones Arena, Sydney Olympic Park, on 24 September 2014, as part of the preliminary day of the 2014 CICA Conference. Following this meeting the CICA new Board met briefly to elect the office bearers for 2014 to fill the roles of President and Vice President.

“As reported by the CICA e-Bulletin dated 3 October 2014, and as part of an ongoing Board Succession Plan, the CICA 2014 Board comprises:

Danny Black - President

Andrew Esquilant

Tom Smith - Vice President

Jeff Sibbick

John Gillespie (Immediate Past President)

Bart Sutherland

Albert Smith

Geoff Bevan (new Director)

Cheryl Woodhart

Jeff Wilson (Board Appointed Director)

I am pleased to say the CICA Board continues as a strong and experienced team, now led by Danny Black as the new President and Tom Smith as the new Vice President. Of course CICA is privileged to have such worthy volunteers working with our State Branch Committee volunteers to progress and lead CICA forward,” said Alan Marshall, CICA’s Chief Executive Officer.

“On behalf of the Members I publicly congratulate Danny as the new President and Tom as the new Vice President. At the 2014 Gala Awards Dinner Danny presented John with a framed-picture collage to recognise and celebrate John’s 10 successive years as CICA President 2004 – 2014. John has been on the CICA Board for 28 years and continues on the Board as the Immediate Past President,” noted Alan.

“On behalf of Members, I would also like to acknowledge and greatly thank the CICA Board volunteers, especially John Gillespie for his untiring contribution and our newly elected Director Geoff Bevan,” said Danny Black CICA President. “I would also like to recognise and thank the Directors who have stepped off the Board following the AGM: Geoff Hughes and Ray Brenton,” added Danny.

“As a member-based, not-for-profit industry association, the CICA Board and our AGM are important parts of CICA’s leadership and governance,” highlighted Alan. “Members are encouraged to view the CICA website member section or contact the CICA Office for a copy of the CICA 2014 Annual Reports,” added Alan.
